| Definition | Measurement of government efforts to put in place legal frameworks that promote, enforce and monitor gender equality. This indicator is defined as the presence of legal frameworks and concrete elements (budget, policy plans, etc.) that are in place to enforce and monitor four areas: overarching legal frameworks and public life, violence against women, employment and economic benefits, and marriage and family. Removing discriminatory laws and putting in place legal frameworks that advance gender equality are prerequisites to ending discrimination against women and achieving gender equality. This indicator is defined based on an assessment of legal frameworks that are in place to promote, enforce and monitor gender equality using a questionnaire comprising 45 questions about promotion, enforcement, and monitoring under the four areas. |
