

U N	G o a l	5. Achieve gender equality and empower all women and girls
	T a r g e t	5.b Enhance the use of enabling technology, in particular information and communications technology, to promote the empowerment of women
	I n d i c a t o r	5.b.1 Proportion of individuals who own a mobile telephone, by sex

I. National indicator

<Type 1>

Indicator	Proportion of individuals who own a smart phone
Definition	The proportion of individuals aged 6 and over who own a smart phone
Calculation method	$\frac{\text{Individuals who own a smart phone}}{\text{Population aged 6 and over}} \times 100$
Unit	Percent (%)

II. National indicator's source

Data sources	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ■ Source: Survey on the Use of the Internet ■ Collection method: Offline interviews with households and population aged 3 and over nationwide
Calendar	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ■ Frequency: Annually (surveys done in Aug-Sep in the reference year) ■ Data release: First half in the following year
Organizations	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ■ Statistics produced in charge of Digital Industry Policy Division (Tel. 044-202-6145), Ministry of Science and ICT ■ In cooperation with the National Information Society Agency (Tel. 053-230-1357)
Related International Agency	ITU, OECD

III. Comparison with UN SDG indicator

① Indicator	② Definition	③ Data value
Same	Different	Same
Different	Same	Different
Note	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ■ National data shows the proportion of individuals aged 6 and over who own a smart phone
Global indicator link	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ■ Metadata: https://unstats.un.org/sdgs/metadata/files/Metadata-05-0B-01.pdf ■ Data: https://unstats.un.org/sdgs/indicators/database/ 	