

U N	Goal	16. Promote peaceful and inclusive societies for sustainable development, provide access to justice for all and build effective, accountable and inclusive institutions at all levels
	Target	16.b Promote and enforce non-discriminatory laws and policies for sustainable development
	Indicator	16.b.1 Proportion of population reporting having personally felt discriminated against or harassed in the previous 12 months on the basis of a ground of discrimination prohibited under international human rights law

I. National indicator

<Type 1>

Indicator	Experience of being discriminated against in the previous 12 months
Definition	The proportion of population who have felt discrimination in the previous 12 months, by discrimination type
Calculation method	(Number of respondents, by discrimination type / total respondents) × 100
Unit	Percent (%)

II. National indicator's source

Data sources	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ■ Source: Survey of Human Rights Conditions ■ Collection method: Interviews with individuals residing in Korea aged 19 and over
Calendar	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ■ Frequency: Annually (survey done in Aug-Sep with August 20 being the reference date) ■ Data release: June in the following year
Organizations	National Human Rights Commission of Korea(Tel. 02-2125-9793)
Related International Agency	N/A

III. Comparison with UN SDG indicator

① Indicator		② Definition		③ Data value
Same	Different	Same	Different	Same	Different
Global indicator link	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ■ Metadata: https://unstats.un.org/sdgs/metadata/files/Metadata-16-0b-01.pdf ■ Data: https://unstats.un.org/sdgs/indicators/database/ 				